

Finance

Geneva College's Finance program offers students a comprehensive hands-on education, equipping students to make strategic financial decisions on a small or large scale. The finance program will prepare students for work in any field of finance management or assessment, including careers as a financial planner, commercial banker, or financial advisor. Regardless of students' career ambitions, the faculty members will teach students an abundance of marketable skills that will equip them to succeed in the business and finance sphere.
