

Pre-Seminary

Geneva's Pre-Seminary program prepares mission-minded students with a strong foundation in Biblical theology. The courses offered for this program push students to dive deeper into Scripture and philosophy. Geneva partners with the Reformed Pittsburgh Theological Seminary to allow students to complete the undergraduate program and their Masters in Divinity in six years instead of seven. For students who are passionate about working in the mission field, this program can launch them into fruitful service, by giving them a solid framework for contemplating and teaching theological subjects.
